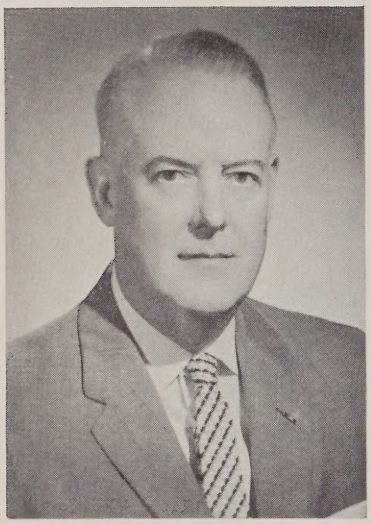
In Memoriam . . .

MR. MAX LEVINE COLONEL KELLEY

With the passing away of Mr. Max Levine and Colonel Kelley, the Latin School has lost two of its greatest friends and benefactors; with Max Levine's death, a living legend ends: with the Colonel's death, 105 years of military drill at the Latin School has come to a close. We therefore pay tribute to these two great men, whose aims will live on as long as there are students to fill the classes.

Horum olim Meminisse Iuvabit

A Thanksgiving



DR. WILFRED O'LEARY
Latin Head Master

As the two teams take the field on this Thanksgiving morn, in this, the seventy-ninth annual Latin-English football classic, each one of us here assembled feels the heavy hand of History. It is this intangible factor, made up of the tradition and example of years gone by, which draws us, even as it has drawn thousands before us, from the warm and congenial atmospheres of our homes and into this wind-swept, ivy-covered stadium. This pride of past and present is driving force behind that "extra effort" which might easily spell victory or defeat.

We are here today to witness a contest between the athletes of two great schools, one of which, our respective Alma Mater, we have come to know, and, risking a bit of sentimentality, to love. These two teams, playing on a field of honor and in the true spirit of sportsmanship, do battle here today, not for personal recognition alone, but for the greater glory of their schools.

Today's game is the climax of months of sweat and sacrifice for both coaches and players alike. We should stop here to extend thanks to coaches William Stewart and Howard Smith, of English and Latin respectively, and their distinguished coaching staffs for their tremendous efforts as reflected in the excellent play of their teams, and also to the players, who, throughout the course of the season, were forced by their own discerning minds to study long hard hours after each grueling practice session.

Today's game, then, means much more than the final score would have us believe. As a symbol of that never-ending struggle between men to achieve excellence in all things, which is the core of our existence, The Game has become a link in the chain which joins past and future, and fills the minds and hearts of both active participants and witnesses with silent pride. It is this pride, therefore, which in an inexplicable way enrichens the present, just as we hope the present will enhance the future.

Man of Honor and Achievement

Elliott P. Frazier

The students, alumni and faculty of the English High School extend cordial greetings to Mr. Elliott P. Frazier, affectionately known as "Doc."

Teacher, Department Head, Senior Class Advisor, Chairman of the College Committee and Assistant Head Master, for 43 years he rendered devoted service to thousands of English High School men. His was the greatest contribution of time and effort in the history of the School.

A Man of Honor and Achievement

THE Game Guy's Prayer

DEAR GOD: Help me to be a sport in this little game of life. I don't ask for any easy place in the line-up; play me anywhere You need me. I only ask for the stuff to give You one hundred-percent of what I've got. If all the hard drives seem to come my way, I thank You for the compliment. Help me to remember that You won't ever let anything come my way that You and I together can't handle.

And help me to take the bad break as part of the game. Help me to understand that the game is full of knots and knocks and trouble and make me thankful for them. Help me to be brave so that the harder they come the better I like it.

And, O God, help me to always play on the square. No matter what the other players do, help me to come clean. Help me to study the Book so that I'll know the rules and to study and think a lot about "the Greatest Player" that ever lived, and other players that are portrayed in the Book. If they found out that the best part of the game was helping other guys who were out of luck, help me to find it out too. Help me to be regular and also an inspiration with the other players.

Finally, O God, if fate seems to uppercut me with both hands and I'm laid on the shelf in sickness or old age or something, help me to take that as part of the game, too. Help me not to whimper or squeal that the game was a frameup or that I had a raw deal. When, in the falling dusk I get the final bell, I ask for no lying complimentary tomb stones. I'd only like to know that You feel that I've been a good, game guy — a saint in the game of life.

Glancing at the Record

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO 14th Game of the Series

1900 — South End Grounds . . . BLS 12 EHS 6 . . . According to forecast the day was to be "clear and colder." At game time, however, the mercury had dropped 15 degrees and it was snowing. The first period of 25 minutes gave thrills to rooters of both teams as the game was hard fought on a muddy field. Captain Tom Connelly had scored a touchdown for English with Fred Bogardus kicking the point-after and Dan Hurley making a touchdown for Latin with Captain Owen McGrath kicking the point-after, this making a 6 to 6 score. During the intermission between periods, spectators climbed over the low fence from each side and a snowball fight ensued. Many hits but nobody hurt. Midway in the second period of 20 minutes, faking a punt formation Captain McGrath made the longest run of the game, being stopped on the 10-yard line by "Cracker" Kennedy. On fourth down, a tackles back play with Bob Guild carrying the ball, went through a hole opened by Frank Littlefield and "Deak" Witherby for the touchdown with Capt. McGrath converting for the extra point. With this victory went the City Championship. Latin School used only eleven men: Armstrong and Harris, ends; Guild and "Con" Hurley, tackles; Witherby and Devonshire, guards, with Littlefield at centre; Capt. McGrath, quarterback, Dan Hurley and Arthur McCarty as halfbacks and Gene Sullivan as fullback. English had Bogardus and Sullivan as ends. Captain Connelly played L. T. against Con Hurley while Hatton, Canne, and Harrison appeared at right tackle against Guild. Collins and McCormick were the guards with Allen as centre; the backfield had Kennedy at Q. B. with McCrudden and Manahan as halfbacks with Bragdon as fullback. Tom Maguire was Latin School Coach with Ed Sherlock as English Coach.

SIXTY YEARS AGO 19th Game of the Series

1905 . . . South End Grounds . . . BLS 0 — EHS 0 . . . As a result of tie game question of championship of "Senior Division of the Boston Interscholastic League" remained unsettled . . . Farthest advance of the Purple was to the Blue's six yard line . . . Duffy (L) and Pishon (E), the respective quarterbacks, made the outstanding runs . . . Though the BLS colors had been Purple and White since 1890, a writer notes: "the wearers of the red and white seemed to find the center of the blue an easy proposition" . . . Norton's (E) end runs thrilled and finally brought position for a try for goal from field — failed . . . In the second half, Flynn (L) punted from his 25 to EHS 40 . . . fumble . . . Cleary (L) who was down the field under the punt grabbed the leather and started for the goal . . . Whiting (E) brought him to earth with "the most sensational diving tackle" with end zone 16 yards away . . . Cleary, Jowett, Elcock, Duffy and Capt. Cowan for the Purple and Capt. Parker, Fardy, both Nortons, and Edmunds for the Blue.

FIFTY YEARS AGO 29th Game of the Series

1915 — Fenway Park . . . BLS 14 — EHS 13 . . .

BLS	EHS
Cronin — Swartz, LE	Brigham, RE
Donegan, LT	Storey, RT
Alberts — Stewart, LG	Galloway, RG
Murphy, C	Abercrombie, C
Curley, RG	McCafferty, LG
Ryan, RT	Cohen, LT

Cousens, QB	O'Hare, QB
Capt. O'Dowd, LH	Capt. Monagle, RH
McGrath, RH	Ernie Martin, LH
Maloney — Kenney — Brady, FB	LaPlante, FB

The teams were coached by two old South Boston pals, Fred O'Brien for Latin and Dan O'Flaherty for English. 'Pep" Cousens scored two touchdowns and 2 points after for all of Latin's points, while Capt. Monagle also scored two touchdowns and O'Hare one point after, for the 13 scored by English.

The second English touchdown was made with only a few seconds left and Ernie Martin missed the point which would have tied the game. With this game ended Latin had at last equaled English in games won but trailed English in total points scored 170 to 204. Up to this point there have been a 5 to 5, 6 to 6 and 3 to 3 ties and three scoreless ties.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO 54th Game of the Series

1940 — BRAVES FIELD . . . 9 A. M. . . . Clear day . . . Big snow storm previous day . . . Field covered with ice . . . EHS a 3 to 1 favorite . . . temp. 28° . . . BLS 19, EHS 12. T. Sullivan scored touchdown in second period and another in third period. Gillis and Webster scored touchdowns in third period to tie score. The game was won in last minute. Pass for a punt went over Capt. Brennan's head and rolled over the goal line and Casey fell on it for a T. D. Captain Ward scored a goal from T. D. by a drop kick. EHS now has 22 victories to 21 for BLS with 11 ties. Coach Fitz-Gerald's 19th season and Ohrenberger's 7th contest between coaches is now tied at nine apiece, with 5 ties. The lineup:

BLS — Casey, McDermott, Robinson, LE; Capt. Bill Ward, Tarushka, LT; Collins, Zawalich, LG; Redgate, Kineary, C; Curran, Mercuri, Waikunas, RG; F. TEN YEARS AGO

1955 — Harvard Stadium . . . EHS 20 BLS 14 . . . Sunny . . . 50° temp. . . . Attendance 16,000 . . . Game televised . . . The only firsts for BLS were three Co-captains and two quick touchdowns by Johnson and Coulon . . . a sports writer said "from there on, though, it was a combination of Lyon and luck, both of which were bad for Latin." Lyon had runs of 73 and 67 yards for touchdowns. The winning touchdown was made on an eleven-yard pass from D'Avolio to Schettino.

The line-up:

EHS — Schettino, LE; Johnson, McCarthy, Timilty, LT; Aiello, D. Williams, LG; Sammarco, Burnes, C; Saia, Keating, Skinner, RG; LeBlanc, RT; Bowman, Donovan, Price, RE; Co-Capt. D'Avolio, T. Williams, QB; Co-Capt. Lyon, Sibella, McManimin, LH; Musco, Lansky, RH; Clifford, Stuart, FB.

BLS — DiGanzi, Yaffe, RE; Co-Capt. Lucido, Falvey, RT; Co-Capt. Coulon, Swepson, Carp, Deyesso, LH; Johnson, Brown, Gertson, FB.

EHS Coach — Stewart. BLS — Coach McCarthy.

By winning this game EHS has won 23, BLS 27 with 13 ties.

FIVE YEARS AGO 74th Game of the Series

BLS 20 — EHS 16

1960 — Harvard Stadium . . . 41° . . . Attendance 22,000. Cloudy. In a game which provided many thrills by fast running and dodging backs, Latin School came from behind and, for the first time in 36 years, has a lead of one in this old series. The standing is now 31 victories for BLS, 30 for English. There have been 13 tie games, ten of them scoreless. In the first period there was no scoring, although many fine gains were made. In the first play of the second period Sinkus ran 25 yards and on the next play Joe Ryan passed to Tom Kelly for the first score. The conversion was good for two points, Ryan to Costello, EHS leading 8 to 0. After the kickoff BLS had the ball on its 32-yard stripe. At this point Bob Walsh hit Caporale with a long pass and Caporale travelled 40-yards for the first BLS score. Thomson rushed for 2 conversion points and the score was tied at 8 each. About five minutes later English was forced to punt. This punt, a short one, was caught by Captain Paul Barringer near the 30-yard BLS line. Paul shook off one opponent and ran the rest of the distance, behind good blocking, for the touchdown. At the end of the half BLS was leading 14 to 8. In the third quarter BLS rushed the ball to the one-yard line and made four attempts to go through the line for a score and failed, three of the stops being made by Mike Adessa. English took over and punted poorly. Ed Bell ran the punt back 25 yards to the 2-yard line. Then Larry Thomson plunged through for the touchdown, making the score, 20 to 8. In the final period EHS received the kickoff on the 18. After gaining on several rushes Ryan pitched to Dick Lane for 18-yard gain. Then Bob Cofield ran 37 yards, being apparently stopped twice by tacklers, for the touchdown. Joe Ryan passed to Costello for the two conversion points, making the score 20-16. English was still threatening, making two attempts for a pass each time being intercepted by Joe Barrett, the last one as the game ended. Latin School had won its third straight, although the officiating could have been better. The opinions on these reports are personal, as the writer has seen all of these games since 1896.

LAST YEAR 78th Game of the Series

1964 — at Harvard Stadium . . . BLS 24 — EHS 22 . . . This was the 78th game of the series and one of the most thrilling games of all. Latin School finished with an unbeaten season, being tied once by Boston College High and winning the championship of the City League.

In the first period, Hatherly recovered an English fumble on the EHS 45 yard line. On the third play Masi passed to Hatherly on the 30 yard stripe and Hatherly ran the ball to the five and Masi went over in the next play. Leoney rushed for the points after. In the second period speedy Manley after five plays for a gain of 28 yards, scored on a plunge through the line for seven yards and rushed safely over for the conversion and the score was tied, 8 to 8.

On the following kickoff Jack Burns took the ball on his own 17 yard line and ran down the left side line to the English 17 yard line where he was tackled from behind by Captain Caporale.

On the next play Masi hit Hatherly in the end zone for the touchdown. Masi's conversion rush made it BLS 16, EHS 8.

Latin kicked off in the second half and English in a dozen plays ran the ball 60 yards and Murphy went through tackle for the score. Manley rushed for two points but was tackled by Hatherly, keeping the score down to 16-14 at the end of the third period.

Latin's last score came in the latter part of the fourth period when the team gained 60 yards on four Masi forward passes, the fourth one being a ten yarder to Hatherly for the score. Masi passed to Bill McDonald for the conversion making the score 24-14.

English received the kickoff and in 8 plays, including run of 30 yards by Caporale, advanced to the 4 yard line, from which Caporale broke through tackle for the touchdown. He also rushed for the conversion making the score 24-22.

Halfway through the 4th period Latin School fumbled and Tracey recovered for English on the Latin 23rd stripe. Here Latin's defensive team held for 4 downs. Then BLS in a series of rushes and passes got the ball as far as the 47 yard line.

English took over and brought the ball back again to the 12 yard line, where Latin held them. On the fourth down with only seconds left Caporale missed a placement kick by a couple of yards and BLS had won 24 to 22.

This makes the series 33 wins for English, 32 wins for the Purple. There have been 13 tie games.
